

HISIC MUN 2026

UNHRC COMM

RoP (Rules of Procedure)

ELEMENTS OF THE COMMITTEE

THE DELEGATES

Delegates are participants who represent different countries, organizations, or people. Their job is to represent their assigned country's policies and perspectives on various global issues being discussed in the conference.

THE EB

The EB in MUN stands for the Executive Board. They're basically the bosses of the committee, running the show and making sure everything flows smoothly. Think of them as the referees and the judges.

MOTIONS

Types of Motions

A motion is basically a formal request made by a delegate to steer the direction of the debate.

Format-

“The delegate of [country] would like to raise a motion on [the motion]”

Practical

- Motion to begin Moderated Caucus
- Motion to begin Unmoderated Caucus
- Motion to begin Round Robin
- Motion to begin voting procedure
- Motion to display Document

Formalities

- Motion to begin session
- Motion to begin roll call
- Motion to adjourn session
- Motion to suspend committee
- Motion to close committee

GSL (GENERAL SPEAKERS LIST)

The GSL in MUN stands for the General Speakers' List. It's like the default mode of debate where delegates take turns delivering speeches on the topic at hand. Delegates have to speak for about one minute.

You have to speak in general about the agenda based on your country.

It will include past actions of your country, the stance of your country, and its resolution. --- This is the same thing a Position Paper must contain.

MOD CAUC (MODERATED CAUCUS)

A Mod is used when the committee wants to focus on a specific sub-topic of the main agenda.

“The delegate of [country] would to raise a motion to begin a Moderated Caucus for [time per speaker and time limit(Eg: 1min/speaker for total time 10 minutes)] on the [topic of their choice]”

Max time- 60 sec per speaker

UN-MOD CAUC (UNMODERATED CAUCUS)

An Unmod lets delegates break away from formal speeches and engage in informal, face-to-face discussions. You can discuss about absolutely anything and the breaks will be occurring during this session.

Maximum time - 15 minutes (Can differ based on discretion by the EB)

POINTS

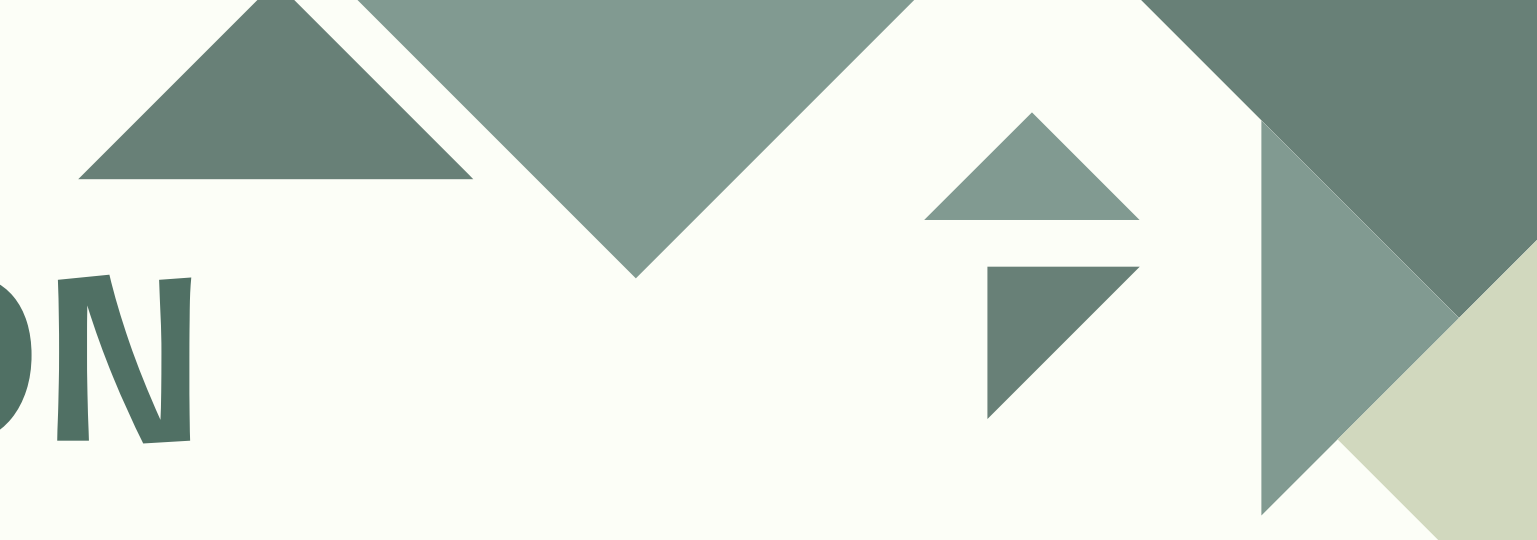

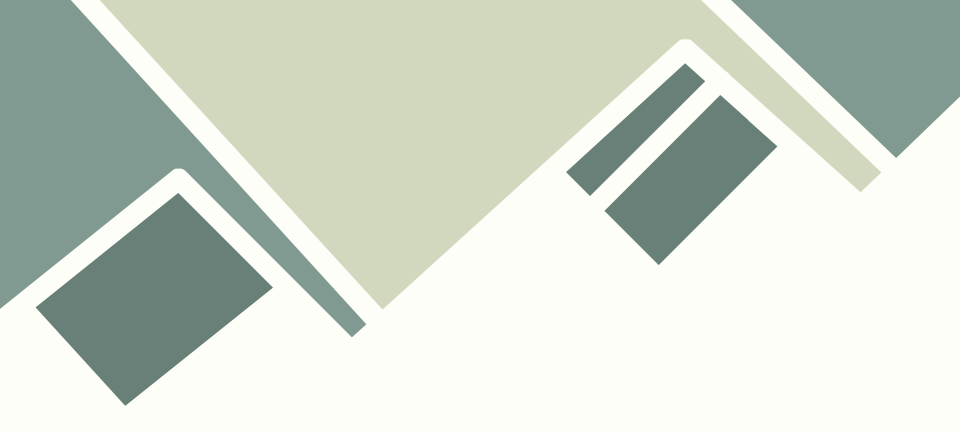

Point of Information (POI): Questions on a delegates speech or request for information.

Point of Order: When you notice another delegate has stated a false statement or a logical fallacy.

Point of Personal Privilege: If you can't hear somebody, if you want to step out, and other such things.

Point of Parliamentary Inquiry: Questions on procedure.

Right To Reply: The right to refute when insulted by another country

RESOLUTION

It's the formal document that outlines the solutions the committee proposes for the issue being debated.

A draft resolution is accepted by the delegates.

There are NO FULL STOPS in a resolution until the resolution is over.

Only commas and semicolons.

THE FORMAT OF A RESOLUTION

(Name of resolution) - Can be absolutely anything

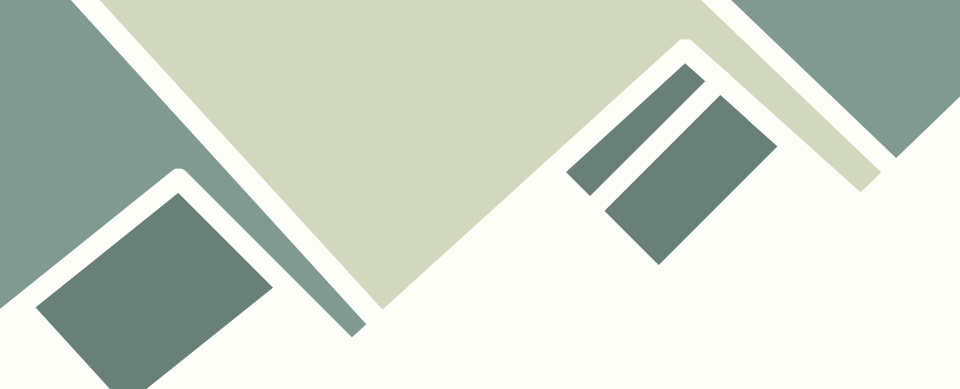

Sponsors:

Signatories:

Topic:

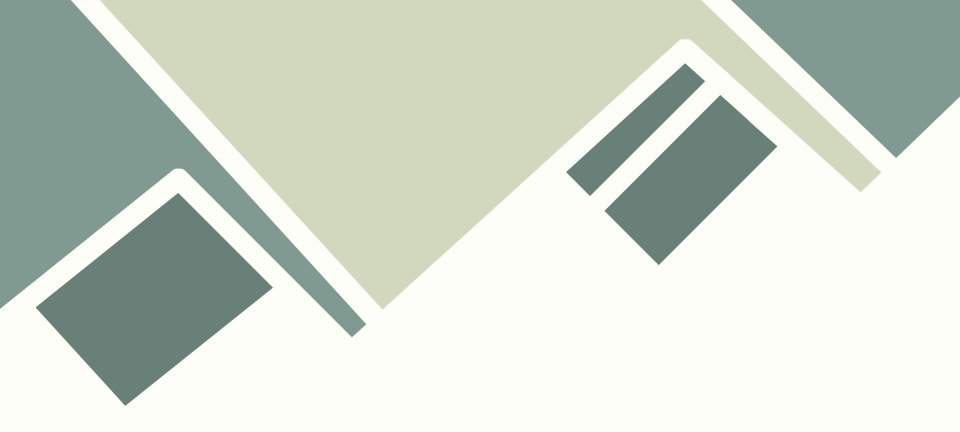

XYZ Committee name, - UNHRC

1. Every preambulatory clause ends with a comma (,)
2. Every Operative clause ends with a semicolon (;)
3. Every sub-clause to a resolution should end with a comma (,) till and unless it is the last sub-clause to the main clause, it shall end with a semicolon (;)
4. Every main clause before starting with a sub-clause should have a colon (:)
5. Full stop at the end of the resolution.

Sponsors are those who have majorly written the resolution, whose countries must agree with every clause, and who would be answering the questions based on the resolution once their resolutions are tabled and are being presented. The number of sponsors is usually kept between 2 and 4, this will be informed to the committee on the day of the conference. The sponsors usually will also be marked higher due to them contributing to the resolution the most, and their lobbying over the three days.

Signatories are those who would like to see the resolution discussed in front of the committee. A signatory does not necessarily agree with the resolution, just wants to see it be debated. A delegate can be a signatory to more than one resolution. Resolutions must have at least 1/3rd of the committee's strength as signatories to be able to present them to the committee.

NOTE : ALL REFERENCE MATERIALS WILL BE SHARED A FEW DAYS PRIOR TO THE MUN.

e.g. Draft reso, Position Paper, GSL, etc...
